

Bob Galyen
CTO at Contemporary Amperex Technology Limited

Christophe is clearly one of the leaders in the battery industry with understanding of realistic market trends. His forecasts consistently out perform others in precision and accuracy. I have the great fortune to have been on the same speakers platform with Christophe over the last two years. It is clear he has earned the respect of his peers and clients.

Lisa Inoue
Marketing Strategy & Business Development at DOW Chemicals

Christophe Pillot is a mastermind. He has made Avicenne a terrific brand, with an excellent reputation for leadership in the advanced battery and energy storage space. His technical market analysis and financial acumen span from smart-phones to automotives. His facts and forecasts are as accurate as it gets, which is why we turn to Avicenne for strategic insights. Christophe's work is widely respected as the benchmark by which others are measured. He has a unique combination of charisma, genius, humility and wit. I highly recommend his publications and consultancy.

David Dorheim
CEO at DWD Advisors, a consulting firm in the alternative energy industry

Christophe has been preparing forecasts for the battery industry, especially for Li-ion batteries, for many years. Through his work, he has accumulated a deep understanding of the structure of the Li-ion industry, and a large, global network of contacts across the entire value chain of the industry. As a result, Christophe's ability to forecast and predict the future direction of Li-ion batteries is better than any other individual that I know in the industry.

Ted Miller
Senior Manager at Ford Motor Company

Christophe is a very talented and experienced technical market researcher and conference manager. He is well respected in the automotive, portable electronics, and battery industries. I have worked directly with Christophe at the "Batteries 20XX" conferences sponsored by Avicenne. He consistently values the time of the conference participants and strives to maintain the quality of the event while remaining flexible when needed.

James Miners
Senior Advisor at Fongit

Christophe's detailed insights into the advanced battery industry were highly valuable in developing our strategy and business plan. His expertise in this space spans markets from raw materials to vehicles sold. He proves a complete and internally consistent vision of the industry: from value chain, to costing and profitability. His predictions at Avicenne have proven accurate over 10 years. My colleagues and I enjoy discussing and collaborating with Christophe to explore new business ideas and trends.

Sébastien Martinet
Electrochemical Storage Expert at CEA-LITEN

I strongly recommend Christophe Pillot for its reactivity, its experience in the battery field and the quality of the market studies performed on this topic.
